"Elegand are the Fonce-Manters"

"Careb not at Jaurei, Hayes, but atick to birch."

Sare Byrot, meaning only to be witty;
But Byrot was of a peculiar church.

And wasn't charitable.—more's the pixy;
Robe thee in charity, and it shall cour:

A multitude of sine question the whiteness
And make thee many an earness friend and lover
In southern homes and hearts. Let thine uprightness

In southern homes and hearts. Let thine uprightness
Approve thy good words not of estentiation.
And President be then of this great nation?
Catch thou at laurel, flaves. "The southern laud is growing flowers to garland thy deserving.
But do thou justice with an squal hand.
Let truth and home guide the still upswerving.
Prom duty's path way: and thy meed shall be
A nation's praises that all true hearts hore thee.
Encrowned thus, posserity shall see
Thine image stand, earth's great ones bowed sefore thee:
So here below thy laurels shall not wither;
While their sweet odors to all airs are given.
Upborne from earth their incense all shall gather
Before to Aimighty Enter in high heaven,
Who on th' eternal throme shall read thy story,
And angels all shall know a mortal's glory!

[For the Dispatch.] Having seen a toust offered in verse by member of the medical faculty at the banquet given to the State Medical Society in December last, headed "Calomet-the old wheel-horse," the following lines were suggested:

When Esculapius his guessing-school began,
Death came unaided to suffering mortal man;
By nature's consent did he then his victims find.
And man by nature lived, nor died nefore his time.
Ah! woeful now: this guessing has become an art
Though fully as vague as when it first did start,
And to death a helping hash doth often lend,
And man thus made to die secundum artem.
Well, we are living in a scientific age.
Then why not die by an Esculapian sage!

OWING TO THE FREQUENT APPLICATIONS IN PERSON AND BY LETTER FROM ABROAD

1113 Main street.

FOR DESCRIPTION OF PROPERTY n and about the city that can be purchased at reasonable prices, I have concluded to meet that need. and am now preparing A NEAT OFFICE PAMPHLET for the spring of 1879, of such property.

This PAMPHLET is not intended for a general distribution, but is to be used only in cases where parties in and out of the city actually wish to purchase homes or make investments here, and will contain a full and distinct description of each piece of property as to its merits. The many advantages of this PAMPHLET are at once apparent. We carnestly solicit all persons naving such property to send us a description of the same, with their lowest prices and terms, with a distinct understanding that no cost whatever is incurred unless a sale is effected, and then only the usual commissions on sales. To save time and trouble in writing descriptions I have printed blanks prepared, requiring only a few words to be inserted, thereby giving a complete description with but little trouble. Any special requests as to restrictions will be complied with. These descriptive blanks will be sent promptly on application, and should be returned without delay Ja 18-10t J. THOMPSON BROWN.

TRUSTEE'S SALE OF A VALUABLE TRUSTEE'S SALE OF A VALUABLE FARM OF NINETY-THREE ACRES ABOUT FOUR MILES WEST OF THE CITY OF RICHMOND AT AUCTION.—In execution of a deed of trust from Absalom Blackburn and wife to the subscriber, as trustee, dated May 18, 1860, and duly recorded in the Henrico County Court office, being thereto required by the personal representative of the creditor secured, I will sell by auction, upon the premises, on MONDAY, January 27, 1879, at 12 o'cleck M., a PORTION OF THE LAND conveyed by said deed, the same being the FARM whereon the said Blackburn long resided, lying in the forks of the road leading from the Deep Run turnpike to Courtney's (formerly Staples's) mill and the road to Bethlehem church, adjoining the land of Mr. F. G. Morrison and others, and containing ninety-three acres, more or less, a plat and survey of which will be shown at the rale. shown at the sale.

There is a SMALL DWELLING upon it, and it has a good tee-house; also, a nond most favorably slimated for ice-making, and with slight expense the situated for ice-making, and with slight expense the dam may be in index and ice gathered during the present season. This farm is located in a good neighborhood, convenient to church and mill, and near to the city; and in view of its adaptation to general farming and its facilities for ice-getting is very desirable.

TERMS: The deed authorizes a sale for the whole or the greater portion of the purchase money in cash, but by consent of parties interested the terms will be one fourth cash; balance at six, twelve, and eighteen monits for negotiable notes, with interest added and secured by a deed of trust.
